Privacy Collection Statement

At Catalyst Aviation Insurance we are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide to arrange insurance and to assist with claims handling. We provide your information to insurers or intermediaries whom we ask to quote for your insurances and to enable them to decide whether to offer you insurance and if so, on what terms. We also provide the information to insurers with who we have bound cover or those that act on their behalf.

We do not trade, rent or sell your information. We may disclose your information to recipients in the United Kingdom for the purpose of arranging the insurance or handling any claims. If a recipient is not regulated by laws which protect your information in a way that is similar to the Privacy Act, we will seek your consent before disclosing your information to them.

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

- You have this duty until we agree to insure you.
- You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.
- You do not need to tell us anything that:
 - reduces the risk we insure you for; or
 - is common knowledge; or
 - we know or should know as an insurer; or
 - we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.
